Chapter 1 by Skeld

You've had bad days right. You know, the days when nothing goes according to plan and someone even gets hurt. Yeah, those days. Well, get ready hear about my bad day. It's gonna dwarf all the "bad days" that you had in your entire life.

So there I was, sailing on the high seas off the coast of Florida with my buddies in our cruise ship when that monstrous monstrosity of a creature pops out of the ocean.

So, here's what happened. But, first some context. Since I was a teenager, I had this weird kinda...um...well...ability, you could say. If I was faced with any dangerous situation, I kinda had this vision, I think. Like the solution just flew before my eyes. So yeah. There's that weird side of me.

Anyway, here I was in this beautiful summer evening in the middle of the sea. I was having the time of my life. You know, like the stuff 18 years old boys do. Then, I heard a deep rumble coming from below. I thought it was the engine or something, so I sent my buddy Jake to check it out. But he returned and said there wasn't anything wrong. Then, we all heard it, a deep and ancient rumble from the depths of the sea.

"Yo, is this like an atom bomb base or somethin'". I said to no one in particular. Then BOOOOM!!!!. There it was. That giant thing rising out of the ocean. A cascade of water drenched us all then the thing was thin for it's tubular body and it had tentacles for a mouth. It had icy blue eyes.

Then it yawned and stretched. We were just staring at it. And then it seemed to notice that it was angry, like really really ANGRY. It reached out with its long thin hand and was about to hit us. But then again, I already had the solution.
